

EUROPEAN CONFERENCE

“Towards a European Student eID” Recent developments in the MyAcademicID Project

20-21 Nov 2019

Humboldt University - Auditorium

*Jacob-and-Wilhelm-Grimm Center
Geschwister-Scholl-Str 1-3, 10117 Berlin*

Program

Wednesday, November 20, 2019

- 11:00 Registration opens
- 12:00 Light lunch and coffee
- 13:00 Welcome
- Welcome by Achim Meyer auf der Heyde, Secretary General of Deutsches Studentenwerk (DSW)
 - Welcome by Malte Dreyer, Director of IT and Media Services, Humboldt-University
- 13:15 Opening and introduction - Why a European Student eID? Current use cases and future developments
- João Bacelar, Executive Director, European University Foundation (EUF): Opening and introduction
 - Elena Tegovska, Directorate General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture (DG EAC): The European Student Card Initiative - a new vision for student mobility?
 - Anne Bajart, Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (DG CONNECT): Towards a European Student e-Card: how to support student mobility and exchange of information in Europe
 - Licia Florio, GÉANT:
- Q&A with the audience
- 14:00 MyAcademicID: Connecting services, building trust, empowering students
Presentation by Christos Kanellopoulos, GÉANT
- The road and challenges ahead
 - Milestones and first results: connections between eduGAIN, eIDAS and the European Student Card (ESC)
 - Use cases and mobility scenarios: identification, authentication and access to online services
- Q&A with the audience

- 15:00 Coffee Break
- 15:30 Parallel workshops to collect the comments, ideas and knowledge of the audience
- WS 1: Political and legal challenges: from the perspective of higher education institutions, student organizations, decision-makers and service providers
→ Target group: HEI leadership, students and decision-makers
 - WS 2: Technical challenges to rolling out and implementing a European student eID
→ Target group: IT specialists identity and service providers and related projects
- Closing remarks for parallel workshops
- 17:30 Free time
- 18:00 Campus Card Berlin (optional visit in the foyer of the Auditorium): The Erasmus virtual student card in action at Humboldt University Grimm Centre
- 19:30 Networking reception for all participants
- Coffeebar c.t by studierendenWERK BERLIN
Unter den Linden 6, 10117 Berlin
-> please enter on the corner of Universitätsstr and Dorotheenstr

Thursday, November 21, 2019

- 8:30 Welcome coffee
- 9:00 Results of parallel workshops
- 9:15 Panel discussion: The role of technology in the future of student mobility – friends or foes?
- Electronic student data – a promising future for student mobility?
 - Identification and Authentication: Authenticate locally – access globally
 - Privacy and security – Are there reasons to worry?
 - Panel with input from:
 - Anne Bajart, Directorate-General for Communications Networks, Content and Technology (DG CNECT)
 - Christos Kanellopoulos, GÉANT: Challenges in the technical implementation
 - Robert Napier, President, European Students' Union
 - João Bacelar, European University Foundation
- Q&A and discussion with the audience
- 10:30 Coffee break

11:00

Panel discussion: Seamless authentication for smoother mobility: strengthening the European student status.

- How can a European Student eID for Higher Education improve student mobility?
- How can an eID help strengthen the student status at the European level?
- What are the benefits for students and higher education institutions?
- What are the key services students should be able to access?
- What's in it for student service providers?
- Panel with input from:
 - Graeme Robertson-Liersch, Directorate General for Education, Youth, Sport and Culture (DG EAC): Political Perspectives
 - Jean-Paul Roumeegas, European Student Card: Service providers' perspectives
 - Tamás Molnár, Humboldt-University Berlin: the perspective of higher education institutions
 - Robert Napier, President, European Students' Union: the student perspective

Q&A with the audience

12:30

Closing RemarksJoão Bacelar, EUF: MyAID: what's next?

Announcement of seven national workshops (dates and places to be confirmed by project partners)

13:00

Light lunch and coffee, departure of participants

15:30-17:00

Optional cultural programs

- A: Walking tour about the history of higher education in Berlin
- B: Visit of the Berlin Wall Memorial on Brunnenstrasse
- C: Guided tour of Museum of German History - From the Weimar Republic to the Nazi Regime (1918-1945)